

HEAVY FIRING ON THE TUGELA

News of a Battle Between Buller and Boers Momentarily Expected

BRITISH ARE HOPEFUL

Gen. White's Situation at Ladysmith is Growing Much Worse Every Day.

British Lost Six Killed and Five Wounded in the Charge at Coloburg—Bundesrath Cargo Was Unloaded and Found to Agree With the Ships Manifest—Wildest Rumors Circulated in London Regarding the Movements of Buller.

London, Jan. 17.—[Special Cablegram]—Press dispatches announcing heavy firing in the direction of Gen. Buller's position is the only fresh intelligence from the front in Natal today. It increases the popular tension and news of a big battle are now momentarily expected. It is rumored that the war office is already in receipt of news of the most gratifying nature, but is keeping it a secret until the British movement at Tugela river is completed. General Lord Roberts reports that in an attack on the Yorkshires and New Zealanders at Coloburg, Monday, the Boers left twenty dead on the field. Otherwise the situation is unchanged.

The wildest rumors continue to circulate regarding Gen. Buller's movements, but up to a late hour this afternoon no press or official advice had been received from Natal.

British Lost Six Killed
Renesburg, Jan. 17.—[Special Cablegram]—Further details of the assault by the Boers on the position held by Yorkshires and New Zealanders at Coloburg are received. The British lost six killed and five wounded. The Boers were within twenty feet of the Britishers' redoubt when the Yorkshires and New Zealanders charged.

Bundesrath Cargo Unloaded
Hamburg, Jan. 17.—[Special Cablegram]—Officials of the Hamburg East African line, received a telegram from Durban saying that all the Bundesrath's cargo was unloaded and found to agree with the ship's manifest. The prize court has not yet arrived at a decision.

Opened an Artillery Duel
Renesburg, Jan. 17.—[Special Cablegram]—The Boers opened an artillery duel this morning, using the captured British fifteen pounder, which the British finally silenced. The British kept up a searching fire on Boer kopjes and also dragged another gun to the summit of Coloburg.

Another Ladysmith Rumor
London, Jan. 17.—[Special Cablegram]—Another rumor that Ladysmith had been relieved caused an advance in the stocks on the exchange today. There is nothing to confirm the report. Ambassador Choate had a long conference with Lord Salisbury at the foreign office today as which the question of contraband war material was finally settled.

GEN. BULLER AGAIN IN ACTION

Heavy Cannonading Heard Along the British Line

London, Jan. 17.—A brief message from Pietermaritzburg to the effect that heavy firing, apparently with howitzers, was heard Monday in the direction of the Tugela river, is taken as an indication that Sir Redvers Buller is again in action.

Whether he has fought his way across the Tugela through the ford he captured last week, bombarded the Boer camp as a preliminary to the assault of Colenso, or turned his heavy guns loose to cover flank operations from Potgieter's drift to the left and Weenen on the right, is unknown, but the sound of cannonading leads to speculation on these theories.

No official dispatch throwing even a ray of light on Buller's movements has as yet been given out by the war office, and probably none has been received.

Every one admits that if Buller sustains a second reverse the moral effect on the British arms will be serious. Sir George S. White's situation is growing worse daily. There are seventy-five cases of fever there now, besides a large number of wounded as a result of Saturday's battle, so if Buller is unable to succor the garrison its capture and a trip to Pretoria will no doubt be far more welcome than further investment and bombardment.

HEIRESS WEDS A CAB DRIVER

Illinois Girl Elopes With Her Lover Despite Parental Opposition

Lincoln, Ill., Jan. 17.—Edward Wiley, a cab driver, and Miss Jessie Forbis, only daughter of Rev. John Forbis, a wealthy citizen and land owner, eloped to Springfield and were married there yesterday afternoon. Wiley is thirty years old while his bride is 19. This was the third attempt at elopement by the couple and the girl's parents had blocked the previous attempts on account of the young man's social position.

DESTRUCTIVE DAWSON FIRE

Large Part of the Mining Center's Business District in Ashes

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 17.—The steamer Danube at Victoria, from Skagway, brings news that a large part of the business portion of Dawson was wiped out by fire last Wednesday night. The loss will exceed $500,000. Great suffering will undoubtedly follow, as the temperature was forty degrees below zero, with the wind blowing. The city is entirely without the regulation water supply.

TO BUILD UNDERGROUND ROAD

Man Who Bids $35,000,000 Is Awarded Big Gotham Contract

New York, Jan. 17.—The board of rapid transit commissioners have awarded the contract for building the underground railway in New York city to J. B. McDonald of 160 Broadway, one of the two bidders. His price was $35,000,000.

GOVERNOR CLOSES THE DENS OF VICE

HURLEY AUTHORITIES DID NOT DO THEIR DUTY.

State Executive Compels Them to Enforce the Law—First Time in Badger History That a Governor Has Taken Action to Regulate Morality of a City.

Ashland, Wis., Jan. 17.—The dens of vice and iniquity which infest the city of Hurley have been closed by order of Gov. Scofield. The local authorities have allowed the variety theatres and other places to flourish without molestation and the condition of affairs reached such a state that in response to a request from the better element of the town Gov. Scofield, has compelled the authorities to enforce the laws. The town last night was closed tight without a single one of the dens open and it is the first time in the history of this region that a governor has taken such an unusual and decisive action to regulate the morality of a city.

Beloit Will Celebrate.

Beloit, Wis., Jan. 17.—Next month the city of Beloit will make the final payment of its bonded indebtedness, a debt that has hung over the city for forty-four years. It was incurred by the building of the Great Western & Mississippi railroad, now a portion of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul system, and when the town voted to bond itself to assist in the building of the road, years of litigation followed. The city was defeated, thousands of dollars of back interest being added to the principal. Then the city began a systematic payment and at last the obligations have been met. At the meeting of the common council last night arrangements were made for a public meeting in celebration of the event.

Pays $50,628 to Creditors.

Stoughton, Wis., Jan. 17.—Receiver B. E. White today paid out $50,628 to the creditors of the defunct Dane County bank, being a dividend of 30 per cent. This is the first payment made, and is but a small part of the original part due. When the second installment will come remains a conjecture.

Corbett in Better Condition

Racine, Wis., Jan. 17.—Henry F. Corbett, the alleged assailant of the Rev. David Cheney, who has been in a critical condition the past few days, is reported by his physicians today to be much better, and it is now quite certain that he will recover.

Discharged From State Guard

Kenosha, Wis., Jan. 17.—Thirty-three members of the late Company L received honorable discharges last night from service in the State guard. It is probable that a new company will be formed.

GRAND JURY TAKES UP THE MATTER

It Is Believee More Blood Will Flow Over the Kentucky Duel Yesterday.

Frankford, Jan. 17.—[Special Telegram]—The excitement over the killing of three men here yesterday in a pistol duel between Colonel Colson and Lieutenant Colonel Scott has not abated. It is believed that more blood will flow. It is reported that the crippled brother of Scott and friends of Captain Golden, who were mortally wounded in the fight, will attempt the life of Colson. Colson spent the night in jail, but will be removed to a hospital tonight on the advice of physicians, who pronounce his injuries very serious. The grand jury today took up the matter.

SENATORS RATIFY SAMOAN TREATY

Uncle Sam Approves the Agreement With England and Germany.

PANGO PANGO STATION

Dangerous Work For Great Britain to Blockade Bay With Warships.

Statement of Imports and Exports For December Shows Balance of Trade in Favor of United States Amounting to $51,737,890 for the Month and $473,625,021 for the Year—Basis for Republican Prosperity Campaign.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 17.—Much to the surprise of some of the Democrats, the Senate late yesterday afternoon ratified the Samoan treaty without even a roll call after defeating Senator Bacon's proposition for a vote among the 3,500 natives on the Island of Tutuila regarding their wishes for or against annexation. The treaty has been practically agreed upon by Great Britain and Germany and the action of the Senate was really all that was required to put it into effect. The United States secures the harbor of Pango Pango said to be the best in the Pacific and nothing more except two or three barren rocks to the eastward, while Germany takes the rest of the group.

Most people have an idea the Samoan Islands are outside of all lines of traffic, but naval people know that Apia is only 2,363 miles from Honolulu, or about a thousand miles less than the distance from Panama to San Francisco. The new naval station at Pango Pango, in fact, a little nearer to Manila than Honolulu. It has been customary to consider the Hawaiian Islands not far west of the isthmus, but, in fact, Honolulu is further from Panama by 500 miles than Apia is from San Francisco.

Trade Balance in Our Favor.

December closed with a balance of trade in favor of the United States of $51,537,890 for the month. This makes the balance for the calendar year the enormous sum of $475,652,021. This is $144,929,797 less than for 1899, but it is $118,539,205 more than for 1897. The exports of 1899 were $1,275,486,641, which breaks the record even of last year, by nearly $20,000,000.

The reduction in the trade balance is caused by the heavy increase in imports, which were $799,834,620, or about equal to those of 1899, the high water mark under the low rates of the democratic tariff bill. The figures show that the imports are about the same under the Dingley law as under the Wilson contrivance, while the exports are $450,000,000 greater, and the balance of trade has jumped from $23,190,789 in 1895 to over seventeen times as much in 1899.

These figures, completed today, will be made the basis of the prosperity campaign of the republicans during the coming summer.

Dangerous For Great Britain

The administration is watching with no little concern the action of British authorities regarding merchant ships bound for the port of Lourenco, Marques/ Without declaring a blockade of Delagoa bay, the British navy is maintaining a strict blockade by patrolling just outside the three mile limit, and overhauling every vessel bound for the port.

In doing this it is admitted that Great Britain is within her technical rights. Each act of stopping a merchant vessel is an individual and separate act, for which the British government must accept the consequences. It is, however, regarded as a very dangerous position for Great Britain to take, because it must soon involve her in very grave difficulties with other nations whose ships are stopped and searched.

GEN. WHEELER RESIGNS

Quits the Army And Will Return From Manila to Resume His Seat in Congress.

Washington, Dec. 17.—Gen. Joseph Wheeler of Alabama, has resigned his position in the army and will return to resume his seat in congress. It is expected that he will start from Manila this week.

He represents the eighth district of Alabama, and is especially interested in the bill to dispose of the government's mineral lands. In a letter written at Manila December 2 and received by W. J. Wood of Florence, Alabama, yesterday, Gen. Wheeler says that he hopes to pass the bill, "after we have got our school lands out of it."

He explains his resignation at this time by saying that he could not have left the army while the campaign was on without subjecting himself to severe criticism.

Senator Hoar's resolution requesting information concerning the Philippine campaign was adopted by the senate today.

EUROPE MAY END WAR IN AFRICA

Coalition of the Great Powers Said to be Now Forming.

GERMANY VERY ANGRY

Kaiser May Lead the Intervention Movement of the European Powers.

German Resentment Over England's Action in the Bundesrath Seizure is Increasing—Majority in Reichstag Demands Full Explanation by Cabinet—Details of British Seizures Are to be Given Publicly—Berlin Press Urges Reprisals.

Berlin, Jan. 17.—German resentment at Great Britain's seizure of ships is not waning and rumors of a coalition of the powers to end the war are given credence. Even Emperor William is said to favor some joint action and unless England sends a satisfactory answer to the protests he will undoubtedly be willing to lead in an intervention move.

In the reichstag today an interpellation by Herr Moeller, national liberal, and all the members of the reichstag, except the social democrats and independents, was introduced. It read as follows:

"What steps have the federal governments taken in regard to the seizure of German ships by agents of the English government?"

In view of the excited state of public opinion concerning the seizures, the interpellation will probably be speedily answered.

Action by Powers Is Demanded

The Hamburger Nachrichten advises German reprisals against Great Britain and expresses its belief that a coalition of neutral powers is feasible. It goes so far as to suggest that Germany should head such a coalition.

The Vossische Zeitung, which endorses the views of the Kolnische Zeitung, already cabled, respecting the course England should take if she desires to preserve Germany's friendship, adds: "The longer England delays the more will she lose in German public opinion."

Europe Is Talking Intervention.

Several reports are in circulation that Emperor William has been asked by Russia to join Holland and Belgium to join in an intervention movement. While these rumors are not entirely without foundation, the emperor remains convinced that Great Britain would not accept mediation at this stage and on political and personal grounds he holds aloof from any such plan.

It was asserted today, however, by a high authority, that if England much longer delays the satisfaction which Germany demands the emperor would participate in a coalition movement to compel her to respect the commercial rights of neutrals at sea.

SMALL REBELLION IS ON IN BRAZIL

Monarchists Take Advantage of a Labor Strike to Threaten the Existing Republic.

Rio Janeiro, Jan. 17.—Over twenty thousand drivers of all kind of vehicles went on a strike yesterday. A small fraction of Monarchists, headed by Curo Preto, a brother of Carlos Alfonso, and Malvino Reis, attempted to take advantage of the situation.

Numerous groups attacked different points, tearing up the street car rails and destroying cars. Several thousand rioters in front of the president's palace raised cries of "Long live the monarchy! Death to the republic!"

A small force of cavalry dispersed the rioters with difficulty. The city today has the appearance of martial law having been proclaimed. The horse cars and other vehicles are partly working.

The police during the first hours of the disturbance were extremely weak and inefficient, but were reinforced by regular troops, especially cavalry, and order was reestablished.

ROBERTS CASE REPORT

Committee Will Make a Majority and Minority Report—Pension Bill Is Finished.

Washington, Jan. 17.—[Special Telegram]—The Roberts committee concluded its work today. There will be a majority report signed by seven members of the committee in favor of exclusion and a minority report in favor of seating and then expelling him.

The pension appropriation bill was reported to the house today. The appropriation is for 1901 and amounts to $288,000,000.

SHE KNEW HER FEARFUL PERIL

Woman Who Awoke on an Embosmer's Table Tells Her Story.

St. Louis, Jan. 17.—Mrs. Christina Hirt of East St. Louis who was in a trance for seven hours and awoke to find an undertaker making preparations to bury her, has recovered sufficiently to tell of the terrible ordeal through which she has passed.

To the sister superior at St. Mary's hospital where she is a patient, Mrs. Hirt today told her story. She said she has a distinct recollection of all that transpired while she was in the so-called trance and had an idea that a conspiracy had been formed to murder her. She heard the weeping of relatives and the ministers prayer and recalls that her husband was near her before she lapsed into the lifeless condition, and that she murmured to him something about going away. She seemed conscious that though dead she could not awaken. She did not suffer but no gladder sight than the sunlight streaming through the blinds when she awoke ever greeted her vision.

The hospital physician says that Mrs. Hirt's condition is extremely critical, but he has hopes that she will recover.

GOT $7,000 AND ESCAPED

Burglars Blow Open a Safe in a Bank at Grafton, W. Va.

Grafton, W. Va., Jan. 17.—[Special Telegram]—Burglars entered the Phillips' bank last night and blew open the safe. They secured seven thousand dollars and escaped.

SHOULD COME TO THE MIDDLE WEST

GOV. SCOFIELD INTERVIEWED ON VICE PRESIDENCY.

Mention of His Name Only Beginning of a Canvass in the West—He is in Accord With Administration—Name of Henry C. Payne Also Considered.

Chicago, Jan. 17.—I believe the republican vice presidential nomination should come to the middle west, but I am not expecting to receive it," said Governor Edward Scofield of Wisconsin, yesterday, at the Grand Pacific hotel.

Since the announcement by Secretary of War Root that he would not accept the nomination if it were tendered him, Governor Scofield has been mentioned as a possible candidate for the republican vice presidential nomination by the newspaper of the west.

"I do not know who brought my name forward," Governor Scofield continued. "I first saw the matter suggested in the Madison Journal, a week ago, and since then I have seen it in other papers, but I have not given the matter serious attention, and I do not care to discuss it now. I regard the mention of my name as merely the beginning of a canvass in the west, during which each state will bring forward a candidate."

In response to a question as to whether his attitude on the Philippine question would be any barrier to his running on the same ticket with President McKinley, he said:

"My position on the Philippine question is well known, but we Republicans of Wisconsin are in accord with the President. There are differences of opinion as to the proper policy to follow in regard to the Philippines, but we are willing to leave those matters to Congress and to trust they will be worked out correctly in the end."

In reply to a question as to whether he considered Henry C. Payne as likely to become a candidate for the nomination, Governor Scofield said:

"I would be perfectly suited if he received the nomination. It they want to give the nomination to Wisconsin, I can help them find a good man, and it will not be myself either."

Buyers Sawmill at Superior

Governor Scofield visited Chicago to purchase a saw mill at West Superior, Wis., owned by the Edward Hines Lumber company of Chicago. The deal was closed yesterday and Governor Scofield left for West Superior in the afternoon, with a contract to saw all the timber owned by the Edward Hines Lumber company in that region. The holdings of Edward Hines Lumber company amount to 800,000,000 feet of logs, and by running its mill at its full capacity it will take from eight to ten years to saw all the logs.

"I do not believe the price of lumber will ever fall again," said Gov. Scofield. "It is the highest now ever known in the history of the industry, and I think it will go still higher as the supply becomes less. The end of the timber is in sight, and the supply being restricted, prices will not fall."

ASK THAT DREYFUS BE REINSTATED

Petition Containing 44,700 Signatures from Paris Is Sent to President Loubet Today.

NINE PEOPLE ARE BLOWN TO ATOMS

Ten Thousand Gallons of Gasoline on the Schooner Anita Explodes.

ENTIRE CREW KILLED

Sound of the Fearful Explosion on the Schooner Could be Heard for Miles.

The Waters of the Bay Heaved Up in a Mountainous Wave That Troubled Two United States Warships Lying Near by—The Schooner Was Literally Blown Into Kindling Wood—Fearful Accident Near San Diego, California.

San Diego, Cal., Jan. 17.—[Special Telegram]—A dreadful marine accident occurred in Magdalena Bay, just within the harbor entrance, late Monday evening.

The gasoline steamer Anita coming into port, had just dropped her sails and was signalling for a tug, when by some unknown means the 10,000 gallons of gasoline she carried became ignited and there was an explosion that could be heard for miles.

The waters were heaved up in a mountainous wave that gave serious trouble to the battleship Iowa and the cruiser Philadelphia who were engaged in target practice about one mile from the scene of the accident.

There is no doubt but that the schooner's entire crew was blown to atoms. Small fragments of the wreck were scattered over the bay. The dead are:

CAPTAIN FANCHE.
CHARLES ANDERSON, mate.
WILLIAM FOREST, engineer.
SIX SEAMEN, names unknown.
The United States warships at once sent several boats to the rescue but not a vestige of any living thing could be found.

The boat was literally split into kindling wood.

W. C. T. U. MEETING AT MILWAUKEE ENDS

Wisconsin Delegates Are Named to Attend Convention at Edinburgh in June.

Milwaukee, Jan. 17.—The midwinter meeting of the Executive board of the State W. C. T. U. came to an end last night, when the visiting officers were entertained at supper by the local unions at the rooms in the Old Library building.

The most important business transacted during the sessions yesterday was the election of delegates to the World's W. C. T. U. convention to be held in Edinburgh, in June next, and the making of preliminary arrangements for the state convention to be held at Oshkosh in May. The World's delegates are:

Mrs. W. H. Upham, Marshfield; Mrs. W. E. Thompson, Milwaukee; Mrs. Rebecca Bass, Fond du Lac; alternates, Mrs. A. E. Shores, Ashland; Mrs. V. H. Campbell, Evansville, and D. Annette J. Shaw, Eau Claire.

Most of these ladies have agreed to go if possible.

Arrangements were also made for participation in the W. C. T. U. exhibit at the Paris exposition. A handsome banner, with some statistical information, will be sent to represent the work in Wisconsin.

BUSY PURSUING ROBBER BANDS

Col. Byrne Decimates a Band of Native Rebels in the Negro Mountains.

Washington, Jan. 17.—[Special Telegram]—A dispatch from Gen. Otis today reports the American army as broadening its base of operations, especially in the south part of the island. He also says: "A band of eighty-six Tagalos which landed at Negros Dec. 30 was struck by Col. Byrne in the Negro mountains, who killed nineteen of them and captured twenty-eight rifles and ammunition. No casualties. The troops in Northern Luzon are busy pursuing robber bands with good results."

Glen Osborn Has Bad Luck With
Some of His Blooded Stock—Rev.
A. Longfield Taken Suddenly Ill—
News and Gossip From a Number of Rock County Towns.

North Johnstown, Jan. 17.—Henry Toker, who was taken suddenly worse last week with pleurisy and pneumonia along with other complications, died Sunday evening at a quarter past ten at the age of forty years. He was born in Aztalan, Jefferson county, and had also resided in Fort Atkinson and Koshkonong previous to removing to this place nearly four years ago. He was a hardworking, industrious man, a good and kind neighbor, a loving and indulgent husband and father. He leaves an aged mother, one sister, a wife and five children, three daughters and two sons, who are heartbroken with grief in this their great and sudden bereavement, he sides a large circle of other relatives and friends to mourn his loss. Funeral services were held at the house Tuesday at 10 o'clock, Rev. F. B. Sherwin officiating. The interment was in the Koshkonong cemetery.

Thirteen cases of mumps are reported in the Cary neighborhood. Remember the W. C. T. U. meeting with Mrs. Richard Cary Thursday.

Monday will go on record as one of the most stormy days of the season. Glen Osborn purchased a valuable cow of Eugene Cary Thursday and while taking her home in a wagon she lounced about and broke her neck. He immediately cut her throat and took her carcass to Milton to be dressed for beef. Friday evening he lost one of his blooded Poland China hogs by choking. Misfortunes never come singly.

Rev. A. Longfield was taken suddenly and painfully ill with stomach trouble Friday, but is now able to be about a little. Mrs. Eliza Starin of Whitewater has been assisting at the Toker home for several days past.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sprague are rejoicing over the arrival of a girl baby Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rice, Roy Cary and wife, Thomas Rice and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Osborn attended the Farmers' convention at Milton Junction last week.

Helen Cary, who has been sick, is reported to be better.

Mrs. Helen Booth of Elroy came here Monday for a visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Laura Shumway.

SOUTH CLINTON.

South Clinton, Jan. 17.—Mrs. E. S. Westby of Clinton is visiting here. Clarence Dresser is home for a few weeks. Our young people have been enjoying the skating on Turtle Creek. E. C. and George Dresser are assisting in the program for the Young Men's chicken pie supper at Turtle town hall Jan. 19th. Mrs. Marston and Mrs. A. Porter were here last week. Several of our people attended H. H. Smith's funeral in South Turtle Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Ohas. Dresser who have both been on the sick list at their home in Clinton are now better. The farmers are very busy hauling grain and getting up wood. Carrie Gilbert who was here for the holidays has returned to Beloit.

SOUTH TURTLE

South Turtle, Jan. 17.—A. T. Adams of Deadwood, Dakota, who taught school in the Jack district in the seventies, has been visiting old time friends. Miss Rosetta Blazer has returned to her work at Madison. School in the Murray district is again in session. Wood sawing is taking the attention of our farmers these days. Al. Benedict, a brother of Sarah and Julia Benedict, is here on a visit of some weeks.

DENTIST DEMANDS A DIPLOMA

Failing to Get It He Attacks Secretary of Dental Board.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 17.—M. J. Rice of Sparta, assaulted Secretary Carson of the state board of dental examiners yesterday afternoon and was arrested. The trouble grew out of the refusal of the board to allow Rice to practice on a diploma from a college that the board does not recognize. Rice brought suit some time ago to compel the board to recognize him and issue him a license.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Humpty Dumpty drew the largest audience of the season at Myers Grand opera house last night. This was due principally because the managers of the show personally took charge of the advertising for the engagement and the people of Janesville got to know there was a good show in town and they went to see it and were not disappointed. There would appear to be no reason why the only Janesville theatre should not be rewarded with abundant financial success. But the people naturally become tired being "faked" by glowing advance notices into attending inferior shows. When a good show does come they are suspicious of it and the attendance is not what it would be if the business was conducted on different lines.

The attendance at the entertainment last night amply demonstrated what intelligent and experienced men can do when properly advertising and handling the advance work of a good show in this city.

The large audience was very much pleased last night and voiced their appreciations in many recalls and hearty applause. Eddie McDonald, as Humpty Dumpty was peerless in his grotesque contortions and laugh provoking absurdities. The Burdock sisters stand high up in their graceful acrobatic dance and Master Wiley Ferris, the popular child comedian, was recalled three times. The audience could not get enough of the peerless Tracadero quartette. They certainly were the best seen here for a long time. It was a good first class show in every respect. The scenery was magnificent and experienced stage hands showed it to the best advantage.

The great popular concert company, Oxford Musical club of Boston, at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, Wednesday night, January 17. Nearly 100 different instruments with vocal and instrumental music; five men in the company. All are artists guaranteed to be fine. The Y. M. C. A. lecture committee endorses this company over their names, so that every one may have the assurance of something out of the ordinary.

MANY CATTLE ILL WITH BLACK LEG

DR. E. D. ROBERTS CALLED TO FARMS NEAR STOUGHTON.

Disease is Much More Dreaded Than
Lumpy Jaw—Death Soon Follows
After the Animals Are Afflicted—
State Veterinarian Clute May Soon
Take Hold.

Dr. E. D. Roberts of this city, was recently called to several farms in the vicinity of Stoughton to inspect several herds of valuable cattle. A close inspection soon convinced the doctor that the animals were suffering with what is known as black leg. This disease is most generally found in calves and sheep. It is characterized by a swelling of the lymphatic matter in the legs and sometimes in the neck. It is more dreaded than lumpy jaw. After being taken ill the afflicted animal lives but a short time. The disease soon works its way to the loin portion of the back. The whole system is then involved and death soon follows.

Dr. Roberts expects to again visit the afflicted animals tomorrow.

CHURCH WILL VISIT JAPAN

Western Man Who Has Been Visiting In Janesville This Week.

James W. Church of Oregon City, Oregon, has been visiting in this city this week the guest of his cousin, J. T. Waggoner. Mr. Church expects soon to go to Japan in the interests of a large eastern paper mill. He expects to act as foreman of a mill in the land of the Mikado. Mr. Church thinks there is a wonderful opening for all kinds of business in Japan. He says the Americans are getting their share of it.

GRAIN-O! GRAIN-O!

Remember the name when you want a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and druggists. It is made of pure grain, it aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder and the children as well as the adults can drink it with great benefit. Costs about as much as coffee, 15c and 25c per package. Ask your grocer for Grain-O.

FETHERS ON THE COMMITTEE

Helped Select the Design For the $300
Medal to Prof. Babcock.

At Madison yesterday the special design for the $300 medal voted to Prof. S. M. Babcock of the State university by the legislature last winter was selected this afternoon by the special committee of three appointed by Gov. Scofield for that purpose some months ago. Spink & Son of 17 and 18 Piccadilly, London, submitted the successful design, which is an unusually pretty piece of art and one that quite surpassed the expectation of the committee.

Regent Ogden H. Fethers of Janesville, Senator John W. Whelan of Mondovi and Secretary John M. True of the State Board of Agriculture composed the committee which selected the design.

PRESENT MODES AND INTIMATIONS OF THINGS TO COME.

A Fancy For Plaits and Braid in Long Lines—Automobile Red and Gay Mixtures of Color to Be Used—A Hint of Ampler Skirts.

A novelty finding favor among some of the modistes is the use of small box plaits laid from top to edge of a tunic arrangement. This is not necessarily cut en princesse in actual fact, though the general appearance leads to that suggestion. It is strikingly graceful and uncommon, however.

The fancy for straight lines is also well shown in the smart autumn suit of the first illustration. This is in the new shade of cloth, which will be much adopted for autumn and winter wear, being a red shade of mulberry and called automobile. The braided design is of plain black plaited braid, having a rather satin effect in places. The stitched revers, dull metal buttons and general finishings give this suit a most charming effect, while the long lines tend to make it a becoming style to any figure inclined at all to embonpoint.

The jacket can be made smaller as a bodice for indoor wear and the collar lined with velvet in place of the fur which obtains on the outdoor coat.

The second cut presents a charming decolletage for a young lady. It would account for itself well in any light tint, but is especially successful in white, with shoulder strap and bow of sapphire blue velvet, a pale shade of blue satin ribbon threading the bouillonettes at the top beneath the frill. Either a sapphire or turquoise buckle should be worn at the waist.

While the chic black gown is still well liked and grays and browns are in high vogue the prospect of dull days to come encourages toward gayness of toilet. The tailors are apparently dominated by the most cheerful of sentiments, for their tweeds combine startling and daring color contrasts. There are blues mixed with heliotropes and further confounded by splashes of red, green and brown flecked with orange, and curiously clever and quite delightful gray mixtures that if caught in one light reveal flecks of blue, in another of mauve and perhaps in yet a third a glimpse of yellow. The tailor world evidences no signs of erring on the side of dull monotony.

Spots, it is said, will be everywhere, and tunic or polonaises of pastel cloth spotted with black velvet will fall over plain cloth skirts that are to be decked with flounces cut bias, which are to replace the shaped flounce so long used.

Velvet, it may be added in passing, is expected to be greatly employed.

It is authoritatively stated that one of the great Paris designers will encourage skirts for the coming season to be much less tight. The necessary graceful curve of the figure will be delineated by a well shaped skirt, but in many cases a wide box plait will appear down the back, giving the flat effect, yet a more graceful looseness, expanding as the figure walks.

THE NEW COAT.

It Is Long, Slim, Trim and Very Much Beattified.

I like these soft felt hats they are showing now. They are like a well worn alpaca as to softness and the ability to be punched and bent in every direction and look all the more stylish for it. The color is the pearly gray so fashionable, and the garniture is a band of black velvet and two or three quills, none over 10 or 12 inches long. Some of them have the quills at the side, others starting from the front and curled over the crown.

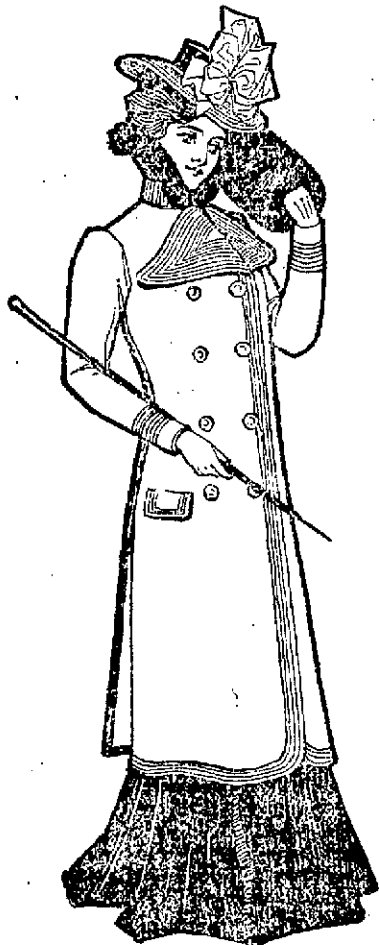

There was one I noticed with the quill just laid along the outside of the band as if it had fallen there and stuck fast. Indeed there are many ways of putting the quills on and of decking in crowns. These hats and the golling capes go together and are seen often on Broadway, and Fifth avenue than on the golf links.

These same golfing capes are among the handiest and prettiest garments for the young for runabouts. One does not always like to wear one's dark tulle gown in the street, so a dark woolly stuff, a crepon or a plaid skirt, one of the soft and comfortable shirt waists of colored flannel and a golf cape make a girl stylish, pretty and right up to date. One of these hats is the crowning point. The whole business has such a delightfully daring and unconventional air about it that the girls like it better and better.

The new jackets and wraps for real cold weather are now out. Collars could not be made higher without hiding the wearer's head completely. Where they are of melton, doeskin or cloth the collars and lapels are stitched in as many rows as they will hold. This makes them very stiff and stylish.

Eton jackets are stitched in fanciful designs around the waist and sleeves, and the revers and flat collar are faced with handsome fur of close pile. This collar and revers arrangement can be turned upward and then becomes a storm collar.

The pretty little short jackets are seen with and without tailor suits and will be until the cold weather makes neavier garments necessary. Over them now there are worn three-quarter box coats for automobile riding. These are more comfortable than beautiful.

One of black kersey was made double breasted and had large bone buttons. Three clusters of three lines of close stitching formed the only ornament.

There is another style of coat, a long box shape, called empire. I don't know for what unless it is because it looks like nothing worn during the "first empire" at all. But it is considered good form by the swell set, and that means success for it. So success to it.

It is made of fine couturman's cloth, melton, kersey and sometimes covert and even tweed, but it goes without saying that it must be in one color only and that from ivory white to drab, biscuit, mode and light tan are also suitable.

It must be long, slim, trim and stitched with black twist in bold stitches. At the sides it is open, up qu-half way to the waist. The collar, lapels, cuffs, pockets and side and back seams are all heavily stitched. It is lined with fancy satin. The collar is bordered with soft fur with long pile to match the color as closely as possible. A muff of the same kind of fur is in order for cold days. The illustration shows the coat. It must hang straight and smooth.

But if elegant simplicity prevails in these coats one can see enough of bewildering extravagance in the opera and ball wraps and visiting capes. Solomon in all his glory wore no such things as they are—crepe de chine in delicate tints, edged with fall after fall of rich lace, these headed by bands of seal, beaver or sable and the whole smothered around the neck with fur, lace and ribbon.

And don't think there isn't a sumptuous lining of silk flounced and flounced again with chiffon. I would be afraid to ask the price of these, as I fear my weak heart would not stand the shock.

Certainly there are cheaper and, to my mind, far daintier things than these in the way of wraps, but we rather like to hear about these, after all.

HENRIETTE ROUSSEAU.

Separate Waists.

No sign of decadence does the separate waist yet show, and here are a few examples of popular styles: The upper blouse is in rich yellow silk trimmed with white feather edging. The waistcoat is of tucked lawn, with insertion of lace and full blue tulle.

STYLISH BLOUSES.

At one side is a rich silk velvet blouse composed of cords outlined in narrow fur. The inner waistcoat is of full white lisse and six frills edged with lace falling over it.

At the other side is a bodice patterned in narrow black lace, with tucked yoke and full front of blue silk. The lower figure shows an embroidered lace silk blouse with full front of accordion plaited lisse trimmed with bands of heliotrope.

Purple in House Decoration.

Purple is an almost unknown color in house decoration, and yet there seems no very good reason for it. A drawing room lately seen was decorated in a very unusual way, in which purple had a prominent part. The walls were hung with some beautiful Japanese applique embroidery. No pictures were hung at all. The window curtains were dyed to match the purple in the Japanese stuff and their brilliancy only slightly toned down by white next the pane. The room has in it some admirable pieces of old mahogany and a few examples of choice pottery. The lighting is from old brass lamps and candlesticks. The effect is unusual.—House Beautiful.

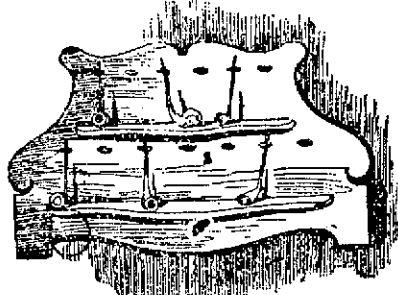

Quince Marmalade, Etc.

One of the last fruits of the season is the quince, and belated housekeepers often utilize it in various forms to eke out a too scanty supply in the fruit closet.

Quince marmalade furnishes a simple way of using up small and irregular fruit. Cut the quinces up, skins, cores and all together. Cover with water and boil till tender. Rub through a colander, and to every pint of pulp add one pound of sugar. Boil for two hours, stirring to prevent burning. Remove from the fire and pour into jam pots, covering in the usual way. Quince jelly may be made of the skins and cores of the quinces, proceeding in exactly the same way as in apple jelly.

A Practical Pipe Rack.

There are no frills on this pipe rack. Its only artistic pretension lies in the "curve, the line of beauty." But if any one finds its simplicity too much akin to barrenness it can be decorated with studs, leather or a little carving. The shelves are screwed on from the back and should be scooped out slightly to hold the pipe bowl in position, for, contrary to the usual practice, the pipes are held with bowl downward. This, according to one who should know about these matters, is the only proper way from a smoker's point of view.

The new variety in taffeta silk has the pliable qualities of a soft foulard, while it is much heavier and more suitable for gowns than the thinner kind.

SENSITIVE CHILDREN.

How Mothers May Manage Shy Little Folks and Their Faults.

Though nervous children are often very sensitive, there are many little people not deficient in moral and physical courage who are yet extremely sensitive and self conscious. These are defects—it is hardly fair to call them faults—particularly difficult to uproot and often misunderstood, for which reason the sensitive child later on in life often remains the sensitive man or woman.

But a parent who recognizes this disposition can by judicious care effect an improvement. The sensitive child cannot bear a word of sarcasm or ridicule. If a task is unsatisfactorily performed, she must be told so in gentle, direct and yet encouraging fashion. To make it the subject of cynical reproach wounds the little heart most deeply and only renders the child more sensitive and shrinking and more unable to do herself justice.

I know one mother—and, as a matter of fact, she is absolutely devoted to her children—who said to a 10-year-old daughter when she had been practicing untidily at the piano "I am extremely obliged for the concert you have given us. I thought your teacher must be playing all the time. And it is very good of you to turn to such capital account the money I spend on your musical education." A high spirited, dashing, unthinking child may take such a remark in good part, but the sensitive little one to whom it was addressed went scarlet, as if some one had struck her a blow. Her lip quivered, and she choked back a sob as she hastily left the room to brood and feel miserable over this reproach, whereas a kindly, "I wish you would practice more carefully, dear: I was disappointed in your playing today," would leave no sting.

Above all, a sensitive child must always be corrected in private. It may be an unhealthy vanity which cannot brook discouragement before a third party, but the trait is so marked that a mother does very wrong if she takes the sensitive one of her flock to task before the others who are cast in bolder mold.

Little mannerisms should pass unnoticed as far as possible. Your sensi-

Facts For Sick Women

First—the medicine that holds the record for the largest number of absolute Cures of female ills is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Second—Mrs. Pinkham can show by her letter files in Lynn that a million women have been restored to health by her medicine and advice.

Third—All letters to Mrs. Pinkham are received, opened, read and answered by women only. This fact is certified to by the mayor and postmaster of Lynn and others of Mrs. Pinkham's own city. Write for free book containing these certificates.

Every ailing woman is invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham and get her advice free of charge.

Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co., Lynn, Mass.

Every ailing woman may have a way of knitting her fingers or twisting a button or crossing her feet, and if she is teased about the habit it only grows worse, and she feels hopeless of checking it. There are sensitive boys, too, who are sent to boarding school and who fall asleep at heart each night because they miss the parents' good night kiss or who cannot accustom themselves to enjoy football or any very rough sport and who are often the butts of the school. Unless the peculiarity of such a boy's disposition is recognized and he is treated accordingly he will grow up painfully sensitive and shrinking.

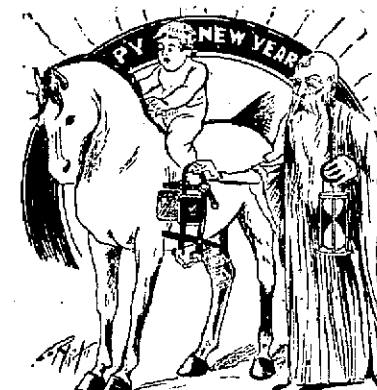

It seems an unimportant point to have a child sensitive and self conscious, but the evil lies in the fact that the trait grows ever bigger and makes boys and girls, when they have outgrown childhood, morbid, unhappy, dissatisfied and poor company for themselves and their circle.

A late thing is to have tailor made dresses of silk, the silk used being of the soft, dull kind or faille.

GAVE UP THE HUNT.

The shortcomings of the Janesville police department were again made plain a few days ago, when an officer came here from Waukesha; spent an hour and a half in searching for an officer who had a key to the lockup; and finally went home in disgust without getting the prisoner he came for.

The prisoner wanted was the boy who was recently sent back to the Waukesha school for violating his parole. He was arrested by local officers and confined in the city lockup. The industrial school authorities were notified of his arrest, but did not come after him for some two or three days. In the meantime the boy was confined in his cell, with all the doors locked, while the police carried the only keys about in their pockets.

When the Waukesha authorities got around to it, they sent a man here after the boy. The man knew the prisoner was in the lockup, but he could not get in. He then set out to find a policeman, but after hunting unsuccessfully for an hour and a half, became disgusted, and took the train for home without his prisoner. Later Turney Samuel Brown was sent to Waukesha with the boy.

In no case that has come to public notice has the defects in the Janesville system been more clearly shown. Every moment that this lad was confined, alone, day and night, in a double locked building, his life was in danger, and the difficulty of liberating him in case of fire, or giving him medical attention, etc., if he needed it, is made plain—an officer who was used to such work could not find a man with a lock-up key after an hour and a half's hunt!

The citizens of Janesville cannot afford to have their business run in this lax manner. If such management was the rule in other departments, the town would soon be bankrupt, not to speak of the inconvenience and annoyance consequent to a total lack of business system.

A prisoner in the hands of the officers is a human being. He may be a sinner, but there is life in his body, and a human life cannot be taken or jeopardized without due process of law. The law presumes that the prisoner is innocent until he is proven guilty, and he is entitled to humane treatment, and physical protection. He should not be locked up like a rat in a cage, and left alone for hours at a time, and perhaps all night. Such a practice is little short of savagery, when it is realized that in case of necessity, a key might not be secured until after the building had burned, or the prisoner had died either from sickness or by his own hand.

Under the present system, however, nothing better can be done. Not only are the lives and property of the citizens endangered by the fact that a policeman cannot be found, but the same is true of the prisoners in the lockup.

Can anything be said in the defense of such a system?

This case is but one of many. People are engaged in the hunt for an officer every day. The subjects of the necessity of a change, and the strong public sentiment in that direction, are getting threadbare, but the circumstances of the Waukesha officer's useless quest are so inexcusable that it would be unjust to allow the occurrence to pass unnoticed.

him are true. The justice of the case has not entered into Pettigrew's attacks on others, but when Senator Wolcott paid his respects to Pettigrew, he only said, in public, what every other senator has said in private on many occasions.

The Boers can hold out in indefinite warfare so far as supplies are concerned. The Boer women are as hardy and as skilled at farm work as the men. Hence, although the men are away fighting, the farms are not neglected, and the production of food, etc., is in no way diminished.

During the year 1899 California produced $15,000,000 worth of gold, and $636,000 worth of silver, while the record of the Klondike was $16,110,000 in gold and $114,617 in silver.

If a policeman cannot find a policeman after an hour and a half's hunt, how long will it take a citizen to find one?

Senator Mason proposes to answer Senator Beveridge. This, dear reader, is a joke, so laugh long and heartily.

The latest farce comedy is named "Make Way For the Ladies." It should be cast in a Chicago street car.

TOBACCO BOUGHT AT LOW PRICES

Market Is Very Dull at Edgerton, and Few Orders Have Been Taken.

Edgerton, Wis., Jan. 17.—Some tobacco is being sold in the country districts, but the movement is not as brisk as before the holidays. Late sales also indicate that buying is being done at figures less than were paid during the rush of selling.

Considerable leaf is yet unsold which was heretofore held at strong prices, and a slight marking now would doubtless cause it to be taken up. Old leaf is apparently good property, and is selling readily in fair sized lots. C. F. Tallard purchased 500 cases of 1898 from L. B. Carle & Son. F. S. Baines sold 267 cases of 1897 to Eastern parties.

Large quantities of tobacco are now being delivered at the warehouses at the market points daily, making busy times at the packing houses. G. Johnson, a Pleasant Springs farmer, delivered to W. S. Brill Tuesday, his eleven-acre crop that weighed in a trifle less than a ton to the acre, which brought him over $1,400, being a sample of an extraordinary yield.

The shipments out of storage of late have been among the largest of the season. Upwards of forty-five carloads, 2,284 cases, were forwarded to all points during the week. During the past period twelve carloads were received from outside points for handling. About 2,500 cases of cigar leaf were exported from New York since last report.

DESTRUCTIVE FUN.

An Officer's Sport That Caused Kansas' Greatest Prairie Fire.

The greatest prairie fire known in Kansas was in the year 1869; and it was set out by an officer of the United States government, says a Kansas City paper. This officer is now in Washington, and, during the Spanish war, his name was more frequently in the papers than any other. One day in 1869 he and a party of officers from Fort Hays were returning from a wild turkey hunt in the canons of the Saline. The wind was blowing a hurricane, and when a stop was made on the high prairie some ten miles north of Hays this officer deliberately touched a match to the dry, crisp grass in order to make a spectacle. When the other officers saw what he was about to do they made a desperate effort to stop him, but the deed had been done and the red flames were reeling across the prairie like a frightened antelope. That fire swept from where it had been started clear across Kansas into what is now Oklahoma. The streams and roads offered no obstacles to it whatever. While going south it had also turned to the east, and left a trail of ruin across Rice, Reno, Kingman, Harper and other counties. Thousands of settlers were burned out, losing their houses and their feed, their horses and cattle. If the man who set that fire had been known to the settlers all the troops on the plains would not have been enough to stay their vengeance. As it was, he suffered remorse beyond description. When the officers at Hays would bring him papers telling of the damage done he would groan and curse himself roundly. He left Hays for some other post in the following year, and so far as we know, his name was never connected with the gigantic prairie fire of 1869.

How Women Dress in Siberia. Common-class women in Siberia wear shawls or kerchiefs on their heads while the rich women wear no head covering whatever. A traveler recently returned from that part of the world says that a Russian woman who is otherwise trim and modern in dress will go about with her hair disheveled to the point of the ludicrous. Less attention is paid to the head and feet than to other parts of her toilet. "It is odd enough to see them," says this same writer, "defying dripping decks and muddy roads in the thinnest of needless slippers, while the breezes play havoc with the loose tresses of their hair. Their shirtwaist is a feminine terror, with a broad turnover collar, fancy cuffs, cotton bows, many buttons and numerous frills, in place of the natty American shirtwaist."

THINK WRECK HAS BEEN IDENTIFIED

Steamer Ashore on Newfoundland Coast Said to be the Tank Steamer Helgoland.

St. Johns, N. F., Jan. 17.—There is scarcely room for doubt that the ship wrecked here is the German oil tank steamer Helgoland, Captain Van Ritten, from Philadelphia for Bergen. A portion of a boat with that name on it was picked up at Cape Pine today. The description of the wreck and of Helgoland tally except as to masts, the wreck having two and the Helgoland three, but it is supposed one of the former's masts went overboard.

A signboard picked up in the surf today bore the words "No smoking allowed," which is taken as added evidence that the wreck was an oil ship, as no others except cotton carriers show such notices.

This morning a life buoy was picked up with a ship's name on it, but several of the letters were illegible. Six flags were also picked up, one of blue, yellow, and red with a red letter "R" in the center. This is the regular flag of the Dutch-American petroleum company.

No bodies have yet been recovered, though twelve or more have been sighted. Five are hove up on the rocks and will be removed when the sea goes down. The others drifted to seaward with an off-shore wind.

SHIPS CLAIMED BY THE WAVES

Great Britain's Losses by Shipwreck the Smallest in the World.

From the New York Herald: Losses at sea sustained by the merchant service of the world in the last year are sent forth in a report prepared by the British government, copies of which have been received here. Great Britain, with over 12,000,000 tons afloat, has the lowest percentage of losses. Startling figures are presented as to the number of steamers and sailing craft reported "missing" and now regarded as lost by insurance underwriters. No less than 24 steamers sailed out of various ports last year and have never been heard from, and 79 sailing vessels cleared and never reached their destination, both classes representing a total tonnage of 72,773. In addition 96 ships, representing 85 sailing craft and 11 steamers, had to be abandoned at sea. As a result of all the losses the gross reduction in the mercantile marine of the world is shown to be 1,141 vessels of 820,725 tons, excluding vessels of less than 100 tons. Great Britain's rate of loss is 2.23 per cent, the next on the list being Germany, with 2.33 per cent. Germany and the United States are now making a "neck-and-neck" race as regards the total number of vessels owned, the latter having 2,113,677 tons and the former 2,113,981 tons. Austria-Hungary is third in point of rate of loss, with 3.18 per cent, and then comes Russia, with 3.63 per cent, and the United States, with 4.14 per cent. The other nations are in the following order: Italy, 4.34 per cent; France, 4.48; Holland, 4.62; Spain, 5.01; Norway, 5.55; and Sweden, 5.66.

TEACHERS WHO DANCE ARE NOT COMPETENT

COUNTY SCHOOL SUPT. ROSS
SO EXPRESSES HIMSELF.

In His Report Before the Board of Supervisors He Referred to This Question—Supervisor Powers Thinks That One County Superintendent Should Answer in Place of Two.

County School Superintendent William Ross in his report to the county board of supervisors, now in session at the court house, stated that it was his private opinion that the teacher who made it a point to attend dances was not competent of teaching school the next day.

Supt. Ross referred to no teacher personally but from the tone of his speech it was quite evident that the speaker had discovered where certain school mams were indulging too freely in pleasures that kept them from getting a full night's sleep. The members of the board took no action in the matter.

When a recess was granted two members of the board had a heated discussion on the subject. One held the opinion that after school hours the teacher could do what she pleased. He said he did not care if she sat up all night with her lover as long as she got around in the morning and attended to business.

When the board was called to order this morning by Chairman Simon Smith three supervisors were missing. Several reports were received, accepted and placed on file.

Supervisor Powers of the town of Beloit, offered the most important resolution of the day. Supervisor Powers is of the opinion that Rock county needs but one school superintendent. For many years two have been doing the work they being William Ross and David Thron. These men are paid $300 a year each. Supervisor Powers said that one man should be able to do the work that his salary should be $1200. Tomorrow the question will be decided.

Supervisor Lynch offered a resolution increasing the annual salary of superintendent of poor from $150 to $200. This question will again be considered.

The special committee appointed at the June meeting to cooperate with the supervisors of the town of Bradford report having awarded to J. W. Wheeler of Clinton for $550 and to the E. Kuert Manufacturing Company of Watertown, Wis. for iron work for $1,750 and also the sum of $50 to E. N. Ransom for superintending the work and also $5 to John Cunningham for drawing papers making total cost $2,355. Of this amount the county pays one half. The report refers to the building of a bridge in the town of Bradford.

Committee number nine appointed to examine the accounts of A. C. Thorpe, county treasurer, compared the vouchers with the books and reported the same correct in accordance with the report. The total receipts for the year ending December 31, 1899 were $209,797.80. The total disbursements embracing the same time were $184,421.16 leaving a balance on hand amounting to $23,376.64. The report was adopted and placed on file.

S. B. Kenyon and George M. Appleby as county superintendents of poor presented their annual reports which were received, accepted and placed on file.

The committee having examined the accounts of F. P. Starr, county clerk, compared his books and vouchers and found them correct. During the past year there were issued 234 marriage licenses, amounting to $117, of which $23.40 was retained by the county clerk as fees and $93.60 paid to the county treasurer. There were also issued 609 hunting licenses.

At 1:30 o'clock this afternoon members of the board visited the new Rock county jail which is now nearing completion. From top to bottom each member of the board made a close inspection of the bastille. They were loud in their praise of the building but were of the opinion that there had been much unnecessary delay in its construction.

GIRLS ON A STRIKE FOR HIGHER WAGES

COTTON FACTORY EMPLOYEES
CAUSE TROUBLE.

Work at the Monterey Mill is Now Badly Crippled—One Hundred Girls Involved in Present Difficulty—Stockholders Claim Better Wages are Being Paid Here Than Elsewhere

One hundred girls employed at the lower cotton mill at Monterey by the Janesville Cotton Mills company, have left their work for the want of higher wages. In other words the girls are out on a strike.

The interested young women claim that they are not out on a strike but that they merely walked out because the cotton company directors would not grant them better pay.

A committee composed of four good looking young ladies were appointed to call on Secretary William G. Heller and have the present difficulty adjusted. The committee called and the result was that an interesting session followed with no definite action being taken by either side.

The greater portion of the work at the lower cotton mill is piece work some of the women making as high as $40 a month.

One of the strikers said this morning: "If you say anything about this trouble in The Gazette don't call it a strike. We merely quit in the hopes that the company will see fit to give us better pay. There are some who receive more pay. Girls are scarce in Janesville now and with the starting up of several of the leaf tobacco warehouses the laboring women will be fewer than ever in the Bower City."

Said one of the Janesville Cotton Mills directors this morning: "It is quite evident that the girls employed at the lower cotton mill don't know a good thing when they see it. Here these girls are out on a strike and are receiving as good pay as some men with families. We are today paying better wages than the average cotton mill in this country. I don't think that the company will grant the request of the strikers, which practically means an advance of 22½ per cent over the present scale of wages."

Eugene Delille, foreman of the spinning room, says that many of the girls have been uneasy for some time past but that he did not anticipate a walk-out.

Foreman Arnold, who has been connected with the cotton mill at the Monterey mill for a number of years, is of the opinion that the present difficulty is wholly uncalculated.

The present difficulty may soon involve the upper mill on River, West Bluff and Franklin streets.

ARTHUR P. ALLER GOES TO OSHKOSH

Janesville Man Selected by the State Board of Control to Fill Vacant Stewardship.

Arthur P. Aller of this city, has received a very pleasant compliment from the State Board of Control, in the form of an appointment as the steward of the Northern Asylum for the Insane, at Oshkosh.

The appointment was made to fill a vacancy, and came to Mr. Aller without solicitation. Mr. Aller accepted the position, and will assume his new duties on March 1. The salary is $1,200 a year, and free house rent.

Mr. Aller has long been associated with his father in the management of the Rock County Poor Farm and Insane Asylum, and his work has been of a high order.

CATTLE MEN IN CONVENTION

5,000 Delegates Are Meeting at Fort Worth, Tex.

Fort Worth, Tex., Jan. 17.—The third annual convention of the National Live Stock association of the United States began yesterday with an attendance of 5,000. After several addresses of welcome the annual address of the president was delivered by J. W. Springer, in the course of which he said:

"We face with the Twentieth century new questions, new responsibilities and rapidly extending markets. Conditions have forced our nation to abandon the Chinese wall policy and we are today enjoying at home our greatest prosperity, while our foreign business for 1899 reached the unheard of figures of over $2,000,000,000."

Secretary Martin read the annual report of the executive committee.

He congratulated the association upon the growing prosperity and influence of the organization, saying that the membership had materially increased during the past year and that its eastern limits, which at the last annual meeting did not extend beyond Illinois, were now at the western border of Pennsylvania. The membership consists now of seventy-five associations.

FORTY HAVE SIGNED ROLL

Forming of Militia Company in Janesville Grows in Favor Daily.

Forty have signed the petition favoring the forming of a militia company in this city. Each day new names are added to the roll. The greater portion of those signed are men whose ages will average twenty five years. Many have seen service in the militia ranks. As soon as the petition contains sixty-five names it will be forwarded to Madison where it will be submitted to the proper authorities.

PORTER.

Porter, Jan. 27.—John Kennedy is reported on the gain. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Barrett are rejoicing over the safe arrival of a son. Horace Fossenden, having sold his farm here to M. Ford, is moving to a farm near Afton. School was closed in the Stevens district part of last week, owing to a false diphtheria scare. Miss Lizzie Tiernan has gone to Edgerton to work in tobacco. Mr. and Mrs. James Farrington, Jr., have gone to housekeeping in Janesville. George Derringer of Edgerton, is repairing wells in this locality. One hundred and ten tickets were sold at the last Porter band hall dance. Another party will be given on Friday evening of this week.

It is reported that owing to a scarcity of milk in that locality the Cooksville factory ceases operations the first of next month. In St. Joseph's church, Edgerton, on Tuesday morning, Jan. 16, Rev. Father Harlin united in marriage Thomas Cassidy and Miss Mary O'Neil. Both bride and groom are well and favorably known here, having resided in Porter all their lives. After the ceremony a reception was tendered them at the home of the bride's mother, at which a large number of guests participated. All unite in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Cassidy a long life of unalloyed happiness so auspiciously begun.

Mid-Winter Fair Meeting.

There will be a meeting this evening of the Mid-winter fair committee at 7 o'clock sharp in the Prentiss & Evenson store, next Rock County Bank. Business of importance will come before the meeting and every member is requested to be present.

Miss Emma Russell has left for a month's trip in the west. She will visit in Oregon and California.

TWILIGHT CLUB DISCUSSES MONEY

IMPORTANT QUESTIONS UP AT MEETING LAST NIGHT.

Mr. Rexford Distinguishes Himself As the Leader—Mayor Richardson Gives the Early History of Money—Thomas S. Nolan Reads a Paper on "Gold Standard."

At last night's meeting of the Twilight club it was voted to limit the membership to the present list. This action was taken because the hotel men could not care for a larger body. The action was taken on the motion of municipal Judge C. L. Fifield. Capt. W. T. Vankirk opposed the plan, saying that he was "an expansionist."

After the dinner had been served, the club was called to order. Before the program was taken up, Stanley B. Smith arose and spoke of the late I. C. Brownell. He paid a feeling tribute to Mr. Brownell and spoke of instances where he had showed his sterling character and fine feelings.

John G. Rexford was the leader and the subject of the evening was "The Money Question." Mr. Rexford was particularly happy in his capacity as toastmaster, and gave many interesting facts and figures in introducing the speakers.

Mayor Victor P. Richardson was the first speaker. His paper was on the subject "The Early History of Money," and was written in a very interesting vein. His paper covered the whole ground from the applying of the earliest monetary requirements, to the present day.

The second paper on the program was a "History of Money in the United States," but the writer was unavoidably absent, so the subject was passed.

Thomas S. Nolan's paper had to do with "The Gold Standard." The subject was presented in an excellent light, and showed that Mr. Nolan was familiar with the theme.

Rev. E. H. Pence spoke of "Bimetallism" and defended the silver cause. He made an excellent argument, and was frequently applauded. He spoke from experience and personal observation, and his subject was handled in a fair and reasonable vein.

Stanley B. Smith's paper was on the subject of "The Monetary Needs of the Country." Mr. Smith spoke entertainingly. He had evidently given his subject much thought, and his argument was direct and convincing.

Burton F. Nowlan spoke briefly of "The Financial Measures Before Congress."

The program being concluded T. S. Nolan arose to reply to Rev. E. H. Pence, and spoke of some of the points Mr. Pence had made.

R. J. Richardson was then called for and spoke for some minutes. His remarks were loudly applauded, and in closing he advocated the establishing of a cabinet department to control the monetary issue.

T. S. Nolan replied to Mr. Richardson and the banter passed between them was much enjoyed.

The subject for the next meeting to be held Tuesday evening, February 15th is "Imperialistic Aggression As Illustrated in the Boer War." T. S. Nolan will be the leader.

DISPLAY OF FINE POULTRY

Exhibition At Broadhead the Finest Ever Seen In the State.

The officers of the Southern Wisconsin Poultry and Pet stock association have every reason to feel proud of their second annual show now being held at Broadhead. As a display of fine poultry it is probably the greatest ever held in the state, there being considerably over 100 fine specimens of Banded Plymouth Rocks alone. The show will close Saturday night.

Seats will be at a premium at the Y. M. C. A. building tonight, the greatest variety of music by artists ever presented to a Janesville audience. The popular price of 25c is made as an accommodation to the people.

This is the season for canned vegetables. It will pay you to get prices of Dedrick Bros. before buying.

LATE NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

GEN. FRENCH GAINS
A SMALL SUCCESSMETHUEN IS STILL STRENGTH-ENING HIS ENTRENCHMENTS.

Free Staters Are Said to be Fired of the War—England Calls Out Another Reserve of Troops—Italy's Big Order for Guns—Fever at Ladysmith.

London, Jan. 17.—War news from Africa continues to dribble through the censor's hand very slowly. Most of that which does come is only rumors and unconfirmed statements.

Gen. French gained a small success Monday by repulsing a force of Boers who attempted to capture the hill held by the Yorkshires and New Zealanders. The Boer loss is reported as being twenty-one killed and fifty wounded.

The Boer force at Stormberg is estimated at 3,000.

Methuen still at work. Lord Methuen is still strengthening his intrenchments on the Modder river. It is again reported that numbers of Boers are leaving Magersfontein for Kimberley and Colesburg.

The Boers claim to have destroyed one of Baden-Powell's forts at Mafeking the other day and that they also engaged him in a smart skirmish. No casualties, however, are reported.

Free-Staters Tired of War. Stories still reach camp that the Free-Staters desire to end the war. The latest report is that a council was held recently at Bloemfontein, at which President Steyn and Gen. Cronje were present. It was then stated that unless the British began the attack by Jan. 17 the Free-Staters would return home.

More Troops Called Out. The war office has issued orders for the formation of five new batteries. Seventeen more militia battalions will be embodied in the course of a fortnight. All the regulars are now out of the country, except fourteen infantry battalions and eleven cavalry battalions.

New Naval Brigade. It is learned that, while it is still uncertain that the entire special-service squadron is going to South Africa when relieved at Gibraltar by the channel squadron, a portion of it will be detailed to convey the new naval brigade being formed for service at the front in Cape Colony. This brigade, consisting of 720 men, eight 4.7-inch guns, twenty-four Maxim's and eight 10-pounders, will be taken to Gibraltar by the channel squadron when it sails on Jan. 30.

Say Kruger May Fleo. In connection with the arrival of President Kruger's son-in-law, Eloff, at Lourenco Marques, aboard, it is alleged, a German warship, a telegram from Durban says that his purpose is to arrange for President Kruger's escape to German Damaraland in the event of Pretoria being captured. An old friend of Kruger's, a man named Herriksen, is settled there, and it is believed that the Germans will help the president to escape as they did the sultan of Zanzibar.

Italy's Big Order for Guns. It is declared in one of the Berlin papers that the Krupp works at Essen on Saturday discontinued the shipment of war supplies ordered by England, but the Deutsche Zeitung prints the startling news that Italy has placed an order with the Krupp's for guns to the value of 50,000,000 marks ($11,900,000), and the knowing ones do not believe that the guns are for Italy's own use.

Coalition of Neutral Powers. The Hamburger Nachrichten advises German reprisals against Great Britain, and expresses its belief that a coalition of neutral powers is feasible. It goes so far as to suggest that Germany should head such a coalition.

Fever at Ladysmith. Gen. White, the commander at Ladysmith, reports, under date of Jan. 15, that there are seventy-five serious cases of fever in his camp.

Possibility of Intervention. Several reports are in circulation that Emperor William of Germany has been asked by Russia, Holland and Belgium to join in an intervention movement. While these rumors are not entirely without foundation, the emperor remains convinced that Great Britain would not accept mediation at this stage, and on political and personal grounds he holds aloof from any such plan.

It is asserted, however, by a high authority that if England much longer delays the satisfaction which Germany demands the emperor would participate in a coalition movement to compel her to respect the commercial rights of neutrals at sea.

Dodge British Warships. London, Jan. 17.—The Pleiermaritzburg correspondent of the Times, telegraphing Tuesday, Jan. 16, says: "The Delagoa bay correspondent of the Natal Times asserts that six big Creusot guns and fifty tons of shells were landed from the French steamer Girondo about the middle of last month under the noses of two British warships."

Fears Trouble with Kaffirs. Cape Town, Jan. 13 (delayed in transmission).—According to letters received from the Transkei region of Cape Colony, Mr. Walter E. M. Stanford, superintendent of native affairs in Cape Colony, advises that the volunteers be not removed from the Transkei district, recent events having greatly disturbed the minds of the Kaffirs.

More Talk of Mediation. Berlin, Jan. 17.—Political circles in Berlin and Brussels believe that King Leopold sent M. Beernaert, president of the Belgian chamber of deputies and one of the ministers of state who represented Belgium at The Hague peace conference, to sound the kaiser regarding an offer of mediation between Great Britain and the Transvaal.

Portugal Will Not Sell. Lisbon, Jan. 17.—In the chamber of deputies the minister of foreign affairs, Veigo Beira, repeated his recent statement with reference to the Anglo-German agreement, and added that Portugal would neither sell, cede nor lease any portion of her colonies.

Accepts American Attacks. Pretoria, Jan. 15 (via Lourenco Marques, Jan. 17).—Gen. Pietrus Joubert, commander-in-chief of the burgher forces, has accepted the proposal of the Washington government to have military attaches accompany the federal forces.

Russia Moving Troops. London, Jan. 17.—The Times has the following from Odessa: "The army corps which has been quartered in the Ekaterinoslav district has been ordered to the Caucasus to replace the Russian troops sent to the Afghan frontier."

Martial Law in the Cape. Cape Town, Jan. 17.—Sir Alfred Milner, the governor, has proclaimed martial law in the districts of Hopestown and Philipstown.

Expect Spooner's Bill to Pass. Washington, Jan. 17.—The bill which Senator Spooner recently introduced for the government of the Philippines, and which provides that after the suppression of the insurrection "all military, civil and judicial powers necessary to govern the said islands shall until otherwise provided by congress be vested in such person or persons and shall be exercised in such manner as the president of the United States shall direct," meets with the hearty approval of the administration and a number of senators, and will, it is expected by those prominent in framing the measure, be adopted in preference to the Beveridge and other resolutions.

Mrs. S. M. I. Henry Is Dead. Battle Creek, Mich., Jan. 17.—Word was received here of the death of Mrs. S. M. I. Henry of this city, who had been attending a religious conference at Graysville, Tenn. Mrs. Henry was the national evangelist of the Woman's Christian Temperance union. She had been selected as the American representative of the W. C. T. U. at the world's meeting to be held in Scotland next June.

Would Abolish Board of Review. Springfield, Ill., Jan. 17.—The Treasurers and Assessors' Association of Illinois held its second annual meeting here Tuesday, forty-one counties being represented. A resolution favoring the repeal of that section of the new revenue law creating the board of review of assessments was presented. It will come up for passage today and will meet considerable opposition.

I want to let the people know who suffer from rheumatism and sciatica know that Chamberlain's Pain Balm relieved me after a number of other medicines and a doctor had failed. It is the best liniment I have ever known of.—J. A. Dodger, Alpharetta, Ga. Thousands have been cured of rheumatism by this remedy. One application relieves the pain. Explosion in Dynamite Mill. Rome, Jan. 17.—An explosion occurred Tuesday in a dynamite factory at Avigliana, sixteen miles from Turin. Ten bodies have been recovered from the ruins, and it is feared that others employed in the factory were killed.

Smallpox at Clifton, Ill. Kankakee, Ill., Jan. 17.—Two cases of smallpox were discovered at Clifton, fifteen miles south of here. The patients had recently returned from Monticello, Platt county, where they visited a family that had the disease.

New Naval Bill Presented. Berlin, Jan. 17.—The naval bill reached the bundersrath Tuesday. Its contents are substantially proposals, as recently foreshadowed, to double the naval strength of Germany, as well as to fix it legally.

ARE OPPOSED TO CHAPPELLE.

Filipinos Think His Mission Is to Rehabilitate the Friars.

WHAT THE INSURGENTS WANT.

Belief That Congress Will Speedily Declare for the Independence of the Islands Under an American Protectorate—Gen. Wheeler Coming Home.

Manila, Jan. 17.—Archbishop Chappelle's reception, where the bishop of Manila and three others assisted in receiving the guests, is occasioning criticism among the Filipinos.

The popular interpretation of Mgr. Chappelle's presence here is that he is President McKinley's agent, sent to rehabilitate the friars, hatred for whom is the Filipino national issue. Less than half of the fifty Filipino families invited attended the reception, and some of them left the house when the bishop of Manila was discovered to be present.

One of Aguinaldo's confidential advisers declares positively that there would be peace within a week were it not for the Filipino notion that congress will speedily declare for the independence of the Philippines, with an American protectorate, or reorganize the islands under territorial government, with the promise that the archipelago shall be a state in the union.

Gen. Joseph Wheeler to Return. Manila, Jan. 17.—Gen. Joseph Wheeler will return to the United States this week, making a stop at Guam on his way thither.

Three additional cases of the bubonic plague have been reported.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The officials at the war department had very little to say in explanation of the return to the United States of Gen. Wheeler. It was gathered that Gen. Otis had not been able to find a place in the field satisfactory to Gen. Wheeler and the latter, having no mind for service in Manila, was willing to return to the states.

Blunder May Cost $15,000,000.

Washington, Jan. 17.—It seems a certainty that the shelling of Manila will cost the United States government $15,000,000 in indemnities. The claims, which are from both British and German residents of Manila, are based on the grounds that the bombardment of the city took place before the time limit fixed had elapsed. The United States will resist the payment of the claims, it is understood, on the ground of military necessity.

Philippines Report Complete.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The Philippine commission has completed its report and sent it to the public printer. Proofs of the first section are expected today, and there is every reason to believe that the first volume at least can be laid before congress within a week.

Spanish Prisoners Reach Home.

Barcelona, Jan. 17.—The steamer Leo XIII. arrived Tuesday from Manila with 1,312 passengers, soldiers and civilians, chiefly former prisoners of the Tagalos repatriated by the United States government.

OUT FOR MINERS' OFFICES.

Prospects of Contents in the Convention at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 17.—After a short session of the mine-workers' convention Tuesday morning an adjournment was taken until today, owing to the fact that the committee on credentials was still unable to report. The committee announced that it would be ready to make a full report in the morning.

There will be a hot fight for vice-president, and the indications are that it will narrow down to a contest between John P. Reece of Albia, Iowa, and T. L. Lewis of Bridgeport, Ohio. Reece's experience in Kansas, where he was put in jail on a charge of contempt of court, and afterward acquitted, has helped his candidacy materially. Lewis, however, is an old-time member of the organization and has many supporters.

The indications are that the committee on resolutions will have a busy time. One of the most important is a measure providing for the creation of a defense fund by the levying of an assessment whenever it may be needed. President Mitchell will recommend such action, and it is almost certain that the convention will coincide with his views on this subject.

Live Stock Men in Session.

Fort Worth, Texas, Jan. 17.—The third annual convention of the National Live Stock association of the United States began here Tuesday with a good attendance of delegates. A resolution was introduced by T. W. Tomlinson of Illinois asking the convention to indorse the senate bill urging congress to empower the interstate commerce commission to correct unjust discrimination of railroads and to empower the commission to fix maximum and minimum rates.

Killed While at Mass.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 17.—A church collapsed today during the celebration of mass in Maloussene township, Sumara district. Nineteen persons were killed and sixty-eight were wounded.

MEET DEATH IN A HOTEL DUEL.

Three Perish When Kentuckians Settle an Old Grudge.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 17.—An old grudge, resumed by two men in the crowded lobby of the Capital hotel shortly after noon Tuesday, caused the death of three men, the fatal wounding of another, the wounding of two others, and the serious injury of a seventh person. Five of the injured men were bystanders.

The principals in the tragedy were David G. Colson, former congressman and former colonel of the Fourth Kentucky volunteers, and Ethelbert Scott, a nephew of former Gov. Bradley, and a former lieutenant in Colson's regiment. All of the dead and wounded are prominent Kentuckians.

Stories of the shooting conflict, but it seems that Colson was the aggressor.

The dead are: L. W. Demaree, assistant postmaster at Shelbyville; Charles Julian, Frankfort; Ethelbert Scott, Somerset, formerly lieutenant in the Fourth Kentucky volunteer infantry.

The fatally wounded: Benjamin B. Golden, Barbourville, former captain in the Fourth Kentucky volunteer infantry.

The wounded: David G. Colson, Middlesborough, former member of congress and former colonel of the Fourth Kentucky volunteer infantry; Harry McEwan, Louisville; O. D. Redpath, traveling salesman for Chicago house, residence Michigan City, Ind.

Favor Nicaragua Canal.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The senate committee on interoceanic canals agreed unanimously to report a bill for the construction of the Nicaraguan canal. The bill is the same as that reported favorably in the house by the committee on interstate and foreign commerce, with a few verbal amendments.

Rice Crop Enormous.

London, Jan. 17.—The Calcutta correspondent of the Times says: "The Burmese rice crop has broken the record. Over 2,620,000 tons will be available for export to foreign countries. Burmah is also able to supply a practically unlimited quantity to the Indian famine districts."

When a new star floats into the field of vision of some watchful astronomer, the world honors the discoverer, gives the new star a fitting name, and records the addition to the sum of human knowledge gained by this discovery. Yet of what small profit to humanity at large is this discovery? What will those cold star rays do for the sleepless sufferer who coughs and burns the long night through?

A far greater discovery for the sick is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a remedy which has cured thousands of such sufferers. Obsolete and deep-seated coughs, bronchitis, weak and bleeding lungs and other conditions, which, if neglected, lead to consumption, are permanently cured by "Golden Medical Discovery." It contains no alcohol or other intoxicant, neither opium, cocaine nor other narcotic.

I had a terrible cough over a year ago and could not sleep, or even to do of good," writes J. M. of Canton, N. Y. "I changed to see an advertisement of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and forthwith bought a bottle of your invaluable Medical Discovery." Beaten half a bottle I was well.

Winter before this, my oldest boy (who is now nearly five years old) had a terrible cough; he had it the whole winter and all summer. Physicians said he had no good, and nothing my wife and I could do did him any good. After your "Discovery" had cured me so quickly I wrote my wife to bring him back from the country. She having carried him there to see if the change would do him good. We were living in Savannah, Ga., at the time. She brought him back and after giving him your great "Golden Medical Discovery" for a time he entirely recovered.

STILL TALK OF PHILIPPINES.

Discussion of the Subject Continues in the Senate.

SPEECH BY SENATOR VEST.

He Objects to Imputations of Disloyalty to the Country for Expressing His Opinion—Currency Bill Taken Up—Proceedings in the House.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The senate is still in the throes of discussion of the Philippine question, and, apparently, there is no near approach to a deliverance upon the subject. Mr. Vest (Mo.) Tuesday voiced the opinion of many senators when he said that such discussion as was now in progress was of no consequence, as the country was confronted by a state of facts that could not be changed by talk.

The resolution of Mr. Pettigrew calling for information regarding the conduct of the war in the Philippines was laid before the senate and the resolution introduced by Mr. Hoar substituted for it, with an amendment offered by Mr. Lodge. It was about to be passed when Mr. Pettigrew offered an amendment calling for information as to all the instructions which the president had given the commissioners who had negotiated the treaty of Paris, together with the correspondence that had passed between the president and the commissioners.

Mr. Davis, chairman of the foreign relations committee and one of the commissioners, moved that the amendment offered by Mr. Pettigrew be laid on the table. The motion was carried, 41 to 26.

The debate on the resolution was concluded by an earnest but brief speech by Mr. Vest (dem. Mo.).

"What is the position of the president?" inquired Mr. Vest. "He directed the peace commission to take one island—Luzon—and afterward abandoned that policy. He has since said the acquisition of the islands was an act of providence—that we could not leave them as derelicts. The fact is this whole question is in a nebulous and foggy condition."

"I disclaim now any intention that my remarks should reflect upon my country. But I deny the right of any man to muzzle me and restrain my right to express my opinion in my own way. We have the bubonic plague added to leprosy in Hawaii; we have starvation in Puerto Rico; we have unrest and disquiet in Cuba, and we have a war of indefinite length in the Philippines. Is it treason to say this?"

At the conclusion of Mr. Vest's speech the currency bill was laid before the senate and Mr. McLaurin (dem. S. C.) addressed himself to an amendment which he had offered to the pending measure. He advocated the repeal of the law placing a tax on state bank circulation and permission to state banks to issue circulating notes. He maintained that the increase of the banking facilities would not help the south and west if provided according to the provisions of the pending bill. He would have each state regulate its own domestic currency both in volume and kind.

Mr. Cullom (Ill.) presented a petition, signed by 3,200 negroes, asking for such legislation as will protect negroes of this country from the "barbarous practice of lynchings and burning colored men." The petition was referred to the committee on judiciary.

RENEWS ATTACK ON MR. GAGE.

Mr. Richardson Charges the Secretary with Showing Favoritism.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The urgent deficiency appropriation bill was taken up in the house Tuesday. The last hour of the debate was enlivened with an attack by Mr. Richardson, the minority leader, upon the secretary of the treasury for his course in connection with the sale of the New York custom house.

His purpose, he said, was to show that the National City bank had been favored on account of the contributions of its directors to the republican campaign fund of 1896, and to show that the course of the secretary in allowing the purchase price to remain in the bank, while at the same time paying rent for the property and keeping it exempt from taxation, was not dealing fairly with the trust funds of the government.

Mr. Hopkins of Illinois championed the course of the secretary, declaring that his reply to the house resolution answered every charge brought against him, and displayed business ability that must meet the approval of all fair-minded people.

Investigate Charges of Polygamy.
Washington, Jan. 17.—The house on postoffices and postroads Tuesday took up the resolution of inquiry that certain federal appointees in Utah were polygamists. Representative Lentz of Ohio, the author of the resolution, charged that papers bearing on the question at issue had been filed, but could not now be found in the records.

Offers Pledge to Filipinos.
Washington, Jan. 17.—Senator Wellington Tuesday introduced a joint resolution declaring that it is not the purpose of this government to deprive the Filipinos of their right of self-government. It pledges them the protection of the United States in establishing a republic when law and order shall be established.

Hearing on Woman Suffrage.
Washington, Jan. 17.—Representatives of the Woman's Suffrage association will have a hearing before the house judiciary committee Feb. 13.

CITADEL OF CORTE.

Famous Fortress to Which They Meant to Send Dreyfus.

The citadel of Corte, on the island of Corsica, which was mentioned as the place where Dreyfus might be imprisoned, but which will not be used for that purpose, is an almost impregnable fortress. It is situated in the center of Corsica, about 50 miles northwest of Ajaccio, the birthplace of Napoleon I. It towers high over the town famous as the governmental seat of Pasquale Paoli, hero of the Corsicans and head of the island's brief independent government.

The fort, which was begun early in the fifteenth century, is described as the Acropolis of Corsica. On one side is a sheer precipice of hundreds of feet, at the bottom of which flows the Tavignano river. The black rock slopes gradually on the town side, the walls and towers of the fort and the stone houses of the town on the slope all harmonizing with the rock-black, barren and crumbling from exposure to the elements and centuries of strife for possession of the fortification, which has been won and lost by opposing forces, stormed and defended so often its walls are full of dents. There is one particularly large hole, through which, it is related, the Genoese hung out the son of the Corsican patriot Gaffori in order to stop the fire of the Corsicans.

WILL WED A BARON.

Chicago Girl Who Has Captured a Titled Englishman.

Chicago does not intend that New York girls shall have a monopoly of titled foreigners. A Chicago girl is soon to wed Baron de Bush of England. She is Miss Pauline Joran, a violinist and opera singer who has had a most successful career. Baron de Bush is a noted English chemist.

Miss Joran is the prima donna of D'Oyley Carte's Savoy Opera company. Her public career began when, as a child of 4, she made her debut in Chicago as a pianist. She began the study of the violin at 12 years of age, and her progress was rapid. When 14 years old she and her sisters made a successful tour through the United States, went to Honolulu, to Australia and through Spanish America and Mexico, winning laurels at every place they appeared.

MISS PAULINE JORAN.

Miss Joran, being the first woman violinist seen in Mexico, at once became a craze and captivated the public. In 1890 she added singing to her repertory and showed the same exceptional talent which had marked her performances on the piano and violin.

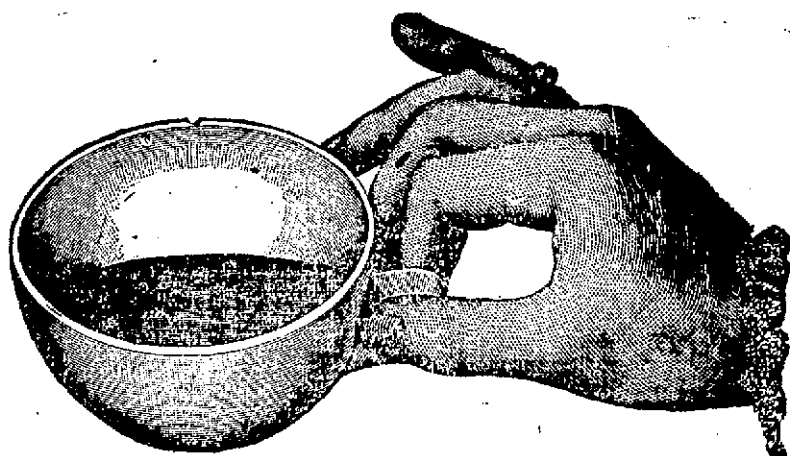

With her mother and sisters she went to Berlin and studied the violin with Emil Sauret and trained her voice under the careful guidance of Julius Hey, the celebrated Wagnerian. She appeared at the Crystal Palace, London, as a violinist and soon after, because of her ability to sing and play the violin, was engaged for Mascagni's "L'Amico Fritz."

No Waste Force.

"The distinctive feature of American watch and clock making," said a practical jeweler of this city, "is to reduce power. Take a fine Swiss watch and compare it to one of domestic workmanship. You will find the foreign timepiece develops enough actual energy to run five or six watches. The American working mechanism, on the contrary, is just powerful enough to carry the hands around at the proper speed. There is no waste force. The advantage is in smoothness of running, and of course a very nice adjustment is required. The standard European springs would tear an American watch all to pieces, and they drive the works like an engine. The same thing exactly is true of clocks, the American system tending altogether toward the conservation of energy."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.
